

Case study

Dedicated Telehealth

COVID - 19

Solution within 24 hours

Telehealth Service activated in 24 hours

At the peak of Covid-19 pandemic in Papua New Guinea the major local bank requested assistance with the provision of telehealth services for all of their staff and families. This service including local doctors and a dedicated telehealth service was fully functioning within 24 hours of the request.