Global 24 Holdings PTY LTD acquires
Fullerton Health Australia PTY LTD's Emergency Assistance division

Sydney, N.S.W, Australia – 3 November, 2021 - Global 24 Holdings Pty Ltd today announced that it has acquired Fullerton Health Australia's Emergency Assistance Division. The purchase will better serve the needs of Global 24's global customers.

“Our purchase of Fullerton's Emergency Assistance division will complement the People Risk Management offering to our clients” said Brett Wheatley, Chief Executive Officer at Global 24. “We look forward to providing them with a true, end-to-end solution with the addition of Risk Advisory to our suite of services. This will encompass Crisis Preparedness and Management, Risk Consulting and Security Assistance. This will be headed up by Julian Heath, formerly Chief Operating Officer (APAC) for Control Risks.”

About Global 24 Holdings PTY LTD: Global 24 offers People Risk Management Solutions customised for the unique needs of our client's business. We combine best-in-class Risk Advisory, Security Assistance, Emergency and Crisis solutions to protect our client's people, assets and reputation.
